Defendant.)

1 Trial is presently scheduled for April 13, 2009. The first pre-trial event is to meet and 2 confer regarding a pretrial conference statement no later than February 7, 2009.

3 In settlement conferences with Magistrate Judge Edward Chen, the parties have settled all 4 matters presently scheduled for trial, with the sole exception of the matter of attorney's fees to 5 the prevailing party. Doc. 175. The parties are continuing to work with Magistrate Judge Chen
6 on the matter of attorney's fees. Docs. 177, 179. In the event the parties are unable to resolve
7 their dispute over attorney's fees, plaintiffs would move the Court for an award of attorney's 8 fees, and the parties would brief the motion. Accordingly, the parties agree that the present dates 9 for trial and pretrial proceedings should be vacated, and they so stipulate.

10 The settlement provides for a recovery by the class on plaintiffs' Labor Code § 226 claim 11 (itemized wage statement). Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ. Proc 23, the settlement will need to be 12 presented to the Court for preliminary and final approval. Plaintiffs wish the motion for 13 preliminary approval to proceed regardless of the status of the settlement discussions concerning 14 attorney's fees, as the settlement of the Labor Code § 226 claim is not contingent on resolution 15 of the fee dispute. Defendant believes the motion for preliminary approval should include the 16 matter of attorney's fees and that, accordingly, the motion should await resolution of the 17 attorney's fees dispute. For the purpose of resolving that particular dispute, the parties request a 18 further case management conference to be held on Thursday, January 29, 2009, at 2:30 p.m., or 19 on such date and time as mutually convenient. In the event, the matter of attorney's fees is 20 settled before the case management conference, the parties will so notify the court.
